

XM is a liable media source. It should only be limited if the local channels are limited as well. There is no reason nor law that determines that XM should be not be allowed to broadcast Instant Traffic and Weather. I use it often and find it much more convenient then having to wait for a radio or local television station to broadcast the reports. I believe it would be unjust, unconstitutional, and immoral to stop XM from providing this service to it's paying customers.